

trigami among Top 38 at SF Start up

I am very happy to announce that trigami is among the best 38 startups at SF Start up. Out of a total 937 applications a top 100 was selected which had to pitch in front of a jury. Then 38 were selected and had to pitch in front of another jury.

Here you find the first 30 seconds of my first presentation:

I have to admit that my pitch was pretty lousy. I don't like it when I can't use power-point, plus I was pretty nervous. But hey, it was a great experience and I only can get better :-).

Here you find some other pitches of my friends:
